NEWTON, N.J. -- The Tree of Health Center is offering the next in a series of classes delving more deeply into "Living Wicca" on Saturday, May 17th, from 1 pm - 5 pm. In the first class "Intro to Wicca," participants learned what Wicca is and what it is not, and discussed what it means to live a Wiccan lifestyle. The upcoming class will explore the Wiccan lifestyle even further, as participants share information and discussions, and gain hands-on experience to help them begin to incorporate the Wiccan Ways into their homes and lifestyles.

This four-hour program is facilitated by Kathleen Gonzalez, a Wiccan High Priestess who personifies the love and beauty of earth's elements. Kathleen Gonzalez is trained through the New Jersey Metaphysical Center and The Modern Mystery School International, and is an Intuitive, Energy Healer and Massage Therapist.

In Wicca it is believed that anyone who is meant for this path will find it through their own search, as the Goddess speaks to each of us in her own time and in her own way. Perhaps this is your path. Perhaps this is your time.

Join other seekers at The Tree of Health Center on May 17th as they explore the world of Wicca. The cost is $50 for the program. If you'd like to stay in the energies of Wicca after the class, Kathleen welcomes you to join her for the May Full Moon Blessing and Pot Luck Feast at from 7-10:30 pm.
